5. A potential policyholder

Complaint is an expression of dissatisfaction by a person to a company / insurer or to the agreement with the company / insurer in respect of its products or services that:

1. Failed to comply with an agreement, code of conduct, rule or law
2. Caused the complainant harm, prejudice, distress or substantial inconvenience
3. Treat the complainant unfairly

Reportable complaint refers to any complaint other than a complaint that has been:

1. Upheld immediately by the person who initially received the complaint
2. Upheld within the company's ordinary process for handling customer queries in relation to the type of agreement, product or service complained about only if that process does not take more than fifteen business days to be completed from the date the complaint is received
3. Brought to the attention of the company where the company does not have reasonable opportunity to record the details of the complaint as may be prescribed in relation to reportable complaints

Upheld means that a complaint has been finalised in full or partially in favour of the complainant and that:

1. The complainant has accepted that the matter and has been resolved in full;
2. It is reasonable for the company to assume that the complaints has been accepted;
3. All steps taken by the company to resolve the complaint have been met, and / or the complainant has indicated their satisfaction with any arrangements to ensure such steps will be met by the company within an acceptable time to the complainant.

Rejected with regard to a complaint means that the complaint has not been upheld and the company regards the complaint as finalised after advising the complainant that it does not intend to take any further steps to resolve the complaint including complaints regarded by the company as unjustified or invalid, or where the complainant does not accept or respond to the company's proposals to resolve the complaint.

Compensation payment is a payment whether monetary or in the form of a benefit or service by or on behalf of the company to a complainant to compensate the complainant for a proven or estimated financial loss incurred as a result of the company's contravention, non-compliance, action, failure to act or unfair treatment resulting in the reason for the complaint. The company accepts liability for having caused the loss concerned but excludes any:

1. Goodwill payment
2. Payment contractually due to the complainant in terms of a policy
3. Refund of an amount paid by or on behalf of the complainant to the company where such payment was not contractually due.

This includes any interest on late payment in 1 or 2 above.

Goodwill payment refers to a payment whether monetary or in the form of a benefit or service by or on behalf of the company as an expression of goodwill aimed at resolving the complainant where the company does not accept liability for any financial loss to the complainant as a result of the matter complained about.
